

Comparison Chart: Contrasting California's Year-Round Child Nutrition Programs for Community Agencies

	Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) – California Year-Round Pilot	Child and Adult Care Food Program – At-Risk Afterschool Snack Program
Eligible Sponsors	Current non-school SFSP sponsors: local government agencies, recreation and parks, private non-profits, food banks. Agencies not currently sponsoring SFSP are eligible to apply if they plan to operate SFSP during summer 2005.	Local government agencies, recreation and parks, private non-profits, food banks
Eligible Sites	Open sites ¹ Enrolled sites ² Migrant sites ³ Camps ⁴ Just like SFSP, no on-site program activities are required.	Afterschool Programs operating in 50%+ FRP areas. Sites must provide children with regularly scheduled activities in an organized, structured and supervised environment and includes educational or enrichment activities.
Licensing	Same as SFSP, local health department license may be required depending on food preparation facility and vended vs. self-prep snack service. Child care licensing is not required.	Local health department license may be required depending on food preparation facility and vended vs. self-prep snack service. Child care licensure is not required.
Reimbursement Rates⁵	Breakfast: $1.485 (rural/self-prep) ⁶ $1.455 (other sites) Lunch and supper: $2.5975 (r/s-p) $2.555 (other sites) Supplement (snack): $.6175 (r/s-p) $.6025 (other sites)	Supplement (snack): $.60
Meal Service⁷	2 meals at open and enrolled sites when school is out of session, 1 supplement (snack) on school days, holidays and weekends 3 meals at migrant sites and camps during summer, 1 snack only during the school year	1 supplement (snack) on school days
Monitoring Requirements	Under the pilot: During year-round afterschool component, sponsors must visit all continuing sites within the first and fourth week of operation and once before March 30 th . Although, continuing sites may qualify to waive the first week visit. For new sites, sponsors do a pre-operational site visit and then	Sponsors of sites participating as afterschool care centers must review their sites at least six times each year. At least one of these reviews must be made during each site's first four weeks of Program operations, and not more than three months may elapse between reviews.

Comparison Chart: Contrasting California's Year-Round Child Nutrition Programs for Community Agencies

	must review all sites within the first week, again during the first 4 weeks of operations, and then once more before March 30 th .
--	---	--

¹ Open sites qualify for the program when 50 percent or more of the children in the area are eligible for free or reduced-price school meals.

² Enrolled sites qualify for the program when 50 percent or more of the children in the program are eligible for free or reduced-price school meals.

³ Migrant open sites qualify for the program by submitting documentation that the site serves primarily migrant children. Migrant enrolled sites must serve all migrant children.

⁴ Camps individually qualify the children and are reimbursed only for the children eligible for free or reduced-price meals.

⁵ Reimbursements under SFSP (No Lugar in California) are for operating and administrative costs. The administrative reimbursement is slightly higher for rural and self-prep sites than it is for all other sites.

⁶ This is maximum amount a sponsor can receive, but a sponsor may receive a smaller reimbursement depending on its costs or budgeting.

⁷ This section outlines the maximum number of meals for each type of site, but sites limited to two meals are not allowed to serve both lunch and supper.